

A Sad Thanksgiving.

The news of the death of Vice President Hendricks reached this city Wednesday evening about 8 o'clock, but it did not become generally known until yesterday morning. The news was so startling that it was not believed until private telegrams were received corroborating the report caught from the wires. The news was received with genuine regret, and expressions of sorrow were heard on every hand. It was indeed a sad coincidence that the news of the great national calamity should be received upon the day set apart for thanksgiving. The political effects are of course being discussed on every hand. There is neither a pro tempore Speaker of the Senate, nor a Speaker of the House and if President Cleveland should die before Congress meets on Dec. 6, there would be no one in the line of Presidential succession. When the Senate meets a Speaker will be elected by the Republicans who would become President in the event of Mr. Cleveland's death. An opportunity is therefore afforded for Jno. A. Logan to become acting Vice President, in spite of his defeat. Whether the Republicans will elect Logan or again choose Edmunds to the position, remains to be seen.

The President has completed his message.

J. H. Archcraft, postmaster at Paducah, has resigned.

The Prohibition vote in New York has increased in five years from 1,547 to 80,866.

Subscriptions to the Galveston relief fund have already reached the handsome figure of $106,000.

A case of genuine yellow fever was reported from New York Monday. The man recently arrived from the West Indies.

King Milan, of Serbia, is only 31 years old and has been on the throne ever since he was 18. He succeeded his father, who was assassinated.

Another New York Collector of Internal Revenue has been appointed, leaving only three Republican Collectors in office.

Cleveland received 61,630 more votes in New York State last year than Hill received this year. The total falling off in the vote this year was 144,174.

Small-pox still exists in Montreal and a dozen more deaths are reported every day. There have been during the last four weeks 764 deaths but the death rate is now rapidly decreasing.

The Sour Mash Distilling Co., of Owensboro, has sued the Standard Distilling Co., of Cincinnati for using its trade mark on inferior whisky. $50,000 damages and an injunction are asked for.

Hardly has Spain gotten rid of the deadly visitation of cholera, which has raged to such a fearful extent this year, before she begins to be shaken up by earthquakes. Severe shocks were felt in several provinces Monday.

There are 3,000 postoffices filled by women and the Postoffice department finds it rather embarrassing to remove them to make places for men. They cannot be charged with "offensive partisanship," in fact most of them are ready to change their politics, if they have any, in order to hold their places. The result is that most of them will be allowed to serve out their terms.

A list of 516 Democrats who voted for Reeves in the Butler county convention and 200 who did not vote at all has been published in the papers of the Fifth judicial district where the Reeves-Roddey muddle has been the absorbing topic of interest. As there are only 1,000 Democratic voters in Butler county, this leaves no room for further cavil and proves beyond question that the nominee was the choice of that county and the district. Now let all good Democrats in the district go to work to elect the party nominee.

The Frankfort Capital for the purposes of arriving by free discussion, at the full understanding of State affairs, and in order to point the way to such remedial measures as may be needed, solicits answers to the following questions:

1. What are your views on the subjects of an appointive judiciary?
2. What are your views on the subject of a sovereignty convention for the purpose of adopting a new constitution?
3. How should pauper idiots of Kentucky be supported?
4. What are your views on the jury question?
5. What reforms do you suggest in the revenue system?
6. What are your views on the subject of local legislation?
7. Do you favor national aid to State education?
8. What plan do you suggest for the best development of the State's resources?
9. What do you suggest as the proper disposition of convict labor?
10. What are your views on the subject of a State board of Equalization?
11. Do you favor the enactment of a whipping-post law?

"COUNTED OUT."

Vice President Hendricks Dies Wednesday.

HIS DEATH VERY SUDDEN AND THE NEWS RECEIVED EVERYWHERE WITH REGRET.

A Chance for Logan to be Elected Acting Vice President.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Nov. 25.—Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, Vice President of the United States, died very suddenly at his residence in this city at 4:45 o'clock this evening under circumstances that were particularly distressing to his family and friends, inasmuch as they had not anticipated a fatal termination of his brief illness, and nobody was with him when he died. He returned from Chicago on last Saturday, and since then had been complaining somewhat of pains in his head and breast, but nothing serious was thought of it. Last night he and Mrs. Hendricks attended a reception given at the residence of Hon. John J. Cooper, Treasurer of State, returning home in their carriage about midnight. Mr. Hendricks had taken off the heavy clothing which he usually wore and put on a dress suit of lighter material, and before he got home he complained of chilliness and a certain degree of exhaustion, but attributed it to malarial influences. He sat by the fire for an hour or more before retiring, but declined to send for a physician, although urged to do so.

HE SLEPT RESTLESSLY until about 8 o'clock this morning, when he arose, dressed himself and ate quite a hearty breakfast, saying he felt much better and intended to attend to considerable delayed business during the day. He and Mrs. Hendricks walked out for nearly half an hour, and he had apparently regained his physical vigor and cheerfulness. An hour later, however, he began to be troubled with pains in the region of his stomach, and Mrs. Hendricks sent for the family physician, Dr. W. C. Thompson, a life-long and confidential friend of the Vice President. As the pains in the stomach continued to increase, he was given an emetic and afterwards an injection, and relief came in the natural way. He arose from his bed, in which he had lain only a few minutes and read the morning papers, talking cheerfully with his wife and an old house servant. Just before noon, however, the physician was again summoned and administered the usual remedies besides bleeding the patient, and Mr. Hendricks again expressed himself as being greatly relieved. He remained in his room all the afternoon, occasionally rising from his bed, to which he was compelled to return by the recurrence of the abdominal pains. To all callers who came, and they were numerous, he sent word that he was indisposed, but would be glad to see them tomorrow. About 4:30 o'clock Mrs. Hendricks, who had been at his bedside all day, went down into the parlor to see a caller who had come to consult with her regarding the affairs of a reformatory institution, of which she was one of the managers, and she remained with him about twenty minutes. Tom, a colored servant, and Harry Morgan, Mr. Hendricks' nephew and page in Washington, remained with him. The servant went out and Mr. Morgan stayed. Mr. Hendricks tossed uneasily in his bed and complained of great pain, but suddenly it seemed to cease and he said to his nephew:

HE HAD A RELAPSE,

however, the physician was again summoned and administered the usual remedies besides bleeding the patient, and Mr. Hendricks again expressed himself as being greatly relieved. He remained in his room all the afternoon, occasionally rising from his bed, to which he was compelled to return by the recurrence of the abdominal pains. To all callers who came, and they were numerous, he sent word that he was indisposed, but would be glad to see them tomorrow. About 4:30 o'clock Mrs. Hendricks, who had been at his bedside all day, went down into the parlor to see a caller who had come to consult with her regarding the affairs of a reformatory institution, of which she was one of the managers, and she remained with him about twenty minutes. Tom, a colored servant, and Harry Morgan, Mr. Hendricks' nephew and page in Washington, remained with him. The servant went out and Mr. Morgan stayed. Mr. Hendricks tossed uneasily in his bed and complained of great pain, but suddenly it seemed to cease and he said to his nephew:

I AM FREE AT LAST, send for Eliza," meaning his wife, and these were his last words, for the young man not realizing the urgency of the message, did not deliver it at once. Just before 5 o'clock Mrs. Hendricks came into the room and found that her husband was dead.

The end of a long and eventful life had come peacefully and quietly. He lay in the bed outside of the covering, only partially disrobed, with his eyes half closed as if he were in a gentle sleep; on his face there were no traces of pain or suffering, but a pallor had come over it, that indicated only too plainly that he had passed away. Mr. Hendricks died in his private chamber, a large comfortable room, in which he had the most of his work. Near his bedside was a case containing legal and political works, and on his desk were his papers, memoranda and a large number of letters, which had been allowed to accumulate without answering in the last two or three days. Dr. Thompson says that in his opinion Mr. Hendricks died of paralysis of the brain, and there will probably be a post mortem examination to establish what the disease was. For several years he had not been a robust man, and was subject to frequent "bad spells," as he called them, during which he would be prostrated sometimes for days at a time.

His domestic relations were of the most pleasant character and Mrs. Hendricks, who is a brilliant and accomplished woman, was of great aid to him in his political career, as she had large and varied information and excellent judgment, besides being greatly ambitious for her husband's political advancement. Since her husband's serious attack two years ago both of them have been apprehensive of a sudden end of his life, and the attachment between them has grown very strong, almost sentimentally so. So intense had this become in fact, that he would not consent for his wife to be away from him for any length of time. Only last week, while in Chicago, he accompanied Mrs. Hendricks even on her shopping expeditions. They had frequently talked over his condition and the probabilities of his early death, and it is evident that for several months past, there has been a growing fear of this kind on his mind.

Mr. Hendricks has no near relatives except a brother who lives in Shelbyville, Ind., and a sister, the wife of Dr. Winslow S. Pierce, of New York. He owns considerable property in this city, but his entire fortune is estimated to be no more than $100,000, the greater part of which he earned by practice of his profession. It is known here that his intention was to abandon politics at the end of his term as Vice President. Only a few days ago, in a confidential talk with a friend, he said: "The newspapers say I am a candidate for President in 1888, but it is not true. I shall not be a candidate under any circumstances. I was not a candidate for the position I now hold, but it was FORCED UPON ME, and now my political ambition is fully satisfied. I want to retire and rest for the remainder of my life." Tonight at an informal meeting of the leading citizens, a committee of five, with Senator Harrison as chairman, was appointed to arrange for a public meeting to be held here, probably on Saturday, to take such action as seems appropriate. The intention is to make it a meeting of citizens of the State generally, with addresses by representative men.

The funeral will probably be Monday, and not later than Wednesday.

A GLOOM OVER THE CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The announcement of the death of Vice President Hendricks has cast a deep gloom over the capital. Mr. Hendricks' health had improved so much during the last year or two that his friends looked to his continuance in public life for many more years and the news of his sudden death came with a shock. The first news of the sad occurrence was an Associated Press bulletin from Indianapolis. The President and the members of the Cabinet were informed at once and the President immediately called a meeting of the Cabinet, to take suitable action. The meeting was attended by all the members except Secretary Manning and Attorney General Garland. It was decided that the President and the members of the Cabinet should attend the funeral. When the Cabinet adjourned the President issued the following:

Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C., Nov. 25, 1885.—To the people of the United States: Thomas A. Hendricks, Vice President of the United States, died to-day at 5 o'clock, at Indianapolis, and it becomes my mournful duty to announce the distressing fact to his fellow-countrymen. In respect to the memory and the eminent and varied services of this high official and patriotic public servant, whose long career was so full of usefulness and honor to his State and the United States, it is ordered that the national flag be displayed at half-mast upon all the public buildings of the United States, that the Executive Mansion and the several executive departments in the City of Washington be closed on the day of the funeral, and be draped in mourning for the period of thirty days that the usual and appropriate military and naval honors be rendered, and that on all the legation and consulates of the United States in foreign countries the national flag shall be displayed at half-mast on the reception of this order, and the usual emblems of mourning be adopted for thirty days.

"GROVER CLEVELAND, By the President: T. F. BAYARD, Secretary of State."

The following was sent to the Secretary of the Senate: "Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C., Nov. 25.—To the Hon. Anson G. McCook, Secretary of the Senate: I am directed by the President to inform you that he has received intelligence of the death of Hon. Thos. A. Hendricks, Vice President of the United States, and to convey your suggestion that you take immediate steps in conjunction with the Clerk of the House of Representatives, to secure a proper attendance of representatives of Congress at the funeral of the deceased. Very respectfully, your obedient servant, DANIEL S. LAMONT, "Private Secretary." The President was just sitting down to dinner when the following dispatch was handed him: "INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Nov. 25.—To President Cleveland: Vice President Hendricks died suddenly this afternoon. Disease, probable, paralysis. Wm. H. ENGLISH.

He was greatly shocked at the news it contained, and immediately sent the following telegram to Mrs. Hendricks: "Executive Mansion, Washington D. C., Nov. 25, 1885.—Mrs. T. A. Hendricks, Indianapolis, Ind.: The sudden and lamented death of your husband excites my profound sympathy for you in this hour of your great bereavement, and I sincerely mourn the decease of one so lately associated with me in the execution of the people's highest trust, while the nation mourns the loss of an honored citizen and faithful public servant. "GROVER CLEVELAND." The work of draping the White House and the various departments will begin to-morrow morning. A large force of workmen has been engaged for the purpose.

Fine Young Trotting STALLION FOR SALE.

On Monday, Dec. 7th, County Court day, I will sell to the highest bidder on the public square in Hopkinsville, Ky., between 11 and 12 o'clock A. M., my Stallion, Melrose, Sired by MAMBRINO FOREST; dam COUNTRY GIRL. Pedigree furnished on application. Address, C. W. BELL, ELKTON, KY.

HORSES AND MULES BOUGHT and SOLD

Polk Cansler's Livery Feed & Sale Stable. Auction sale of Live Stock, fourth Saturday in each month. Special livery rates given to commercial men. Russellville Street, near Main. Come and see me. POLK CANSLER.

A BIG OFFER. To introduce them I will give away 100 self-operating Washing Machines, if you will send us your name, P. O. address and office at once. THE NATIONAL CO., 21 Day St., N. Y.

L. G. WILLIAMS & CO., Implement Dealers, Will move into their new building in a few days.

JOHN W. POFF, South Kentuckian Building, HEADQUARTERS FOR Hand-Made Harness, —OF ALL KINDS.— —ALSO— Saddles, Bridles and Whips. I will keep everything connected with the SADDLERY BUSINESS. My Goods are of the Best Material and Superior Workmanship. Call and examine my stock and be convinced. Repairing done with neatness, at prices to suit the times. Orders will receive prompt attention, and all work warranted. Sep-4-ff.

Established, 1853. Incorporated, 1885. F. W. Cook Brewing Co., —BREWERS AND BOTTLERS OF— PILSENER EXPORT BEER. Office, 24 Upper Seventh St., EVANSVILLE, IND. Sept. 30, 1885.

NAT. GAITHER, Manager. J. K. GANT, Salesman.

Gant & Gaither Company, Tobacco Commission Merchants HOPKINSVILLE, - KENTUCKY.

JNO. W. MCGAUGHEY, President. DIRECTORS: D. B. NANCE, M. D. BOALES, THOS. G. GAINES, Z. T. LACEY, JNO. W. HANBERRY, THOS. W. BAKER, H. G. ABERNATHY, H. H. ABERNATHY

ABERNATHY & CO., TOBACCO COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

CENTRAL WAREHOUSE, HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY. AMPLE ACCOMMODATION FOR TEAMS AND TEAMSTERS FREE OF CHARGE

Pomroy's Liver Cure, —THE GREAT REMEDY FOR— SICK HEADACHE, DYSPEPSIA, AND LIVER COMPLAINT.

SOLD AT GAITHER'S PRESCRIPTION DRUG STORE. POMROY'S VERMIFUGE —IS SAFE AND SURE—

TRY IT. SOLD BY G. E. GAITHER AND J. R. ARMISTEAD.

LOUISVILLE BUGGY COMPANY, MANUFACTURERS OF All the latest styles of strictly first-class Carriages, Barouches, Buggies and Phaetons.

We guarantee workmanship and material equal to any factory in the State. All work reliably warranted. Interested parties will consult their interests by inspecting our stock personally before buying. If at a distance, send for catalogue and general information. Factory & Warehouse, 317 & 319 So. Market St., Bet. 3d & 4th, Louisville, Ky.

MAIN STREET FIRE-PROOF WAREHOUSE, BUCKNER & WOOLDRIDGE, Prop'rs.

Liberal Advances on Tobacco in Store, and personal attention given to the inspection and sale of tobacco. Good lot for teams and quarters for teamsters. Send us your tobacco and we will obtain the highest price.

All Tobacco Insured Unless Otherwise Instructed in Writing. Buckner & Wooldridge.

C. E. TANDY & CO., DEALERS IN Drugs, Groceries, Tobacco, Etc., FAIRVIEW, KENTUCKY.

A full line of Drugs, Druggist's Sundries, Stationery, Soaps, Perfumeries and Fancy Articles, also a choice stock of Groceries, Tobacco, Cigars, Glassware, Tinware, Etc., kept always on hand. Everything new and fresh. Give us a call before making your purchases. C. E. TANDY & CO. Feb. 20.

FOR SEVEN YEARS.

J. S. Parrish. W. F. Buckner. D. Walker Williams.

Mr. L. W. Blake, the subject of the above sketch, with the Evening Chronicle, St. Louis, Mo., in answer to the inquiry of a reporter said: "For seven years I had been ailing with catarrh, and during that time have been treated by six eminent physicians, without success. Some doctors told me I had consumption. For the last three years I had a continual discharge of mucous droppings in the throat, a cough and pain across my forehead. Added to that was a loss of memory, voice, appetite, racking in the ears, and a general feeling of wretchedness. About five months ago I consulted Dr. Turner. To-day I am as well as ever, have gained twenty pounds, and don't detect a trace of my old trouble. Yes, sir, I would be pleased to answer, by letter, any person suffering from that dread disease. Louis Turner, M. D., has offices at 819 Washington ave., St. Louis, Mo., and has a private and hospital practice of over thirty years, treated with wonderful success all curable cases. Treatment of deformities and surgery a specialty. NO NECESSARY FEE TO PATIENTS. By my original system of consultation, I can treat patients by mail as successfully as in personal consultation. Patients can consult me by mail on all Diseases of the Blood, Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Heart, Nerves, General Debility, and all diseases peculiar to the sexes. No exorbitant charges. Consultation at office and by mail one dollar. SEND ONE DOLLAR FOR A FULL CONSULTATION BY MAIL, on receipt of which I will thoroughly investigate your case. Medicines furnished free to patients. If you are sick or ailing, write me. No letters answered unless accompanied by a fee, in stamps. Address all letters to Dr. Louis TURNER, 819 WASHINGTON AVENUE, ST. LOUIS, MO.

JOHN W. POFF, South Kentuckian Building, HEADQUARTERS FOR Hand-Made Harness, —OF ALL KINDS.— —ALSO— Saddles, Bridles and Whips. I will keep everything connected with the SADDLERY BUSINESS. My Goods are of the Best Material and Superior Workmanship. Call and examine my stock and be convinced. Repairing done with neatness, at prices to suit the times. Orders will receive prompt attention, and all work warranted. Sep-4-ff.

Established, 1853. Incorporated, 1885. F. W. Cook Brewing Co., —BREWERS AND BOTTLERS OF— PILSENER EXPORT BEER. Office, 24 Upper Seventh St., EVANSVILLE, IND. Sept. 30, 1885.

NAT. GAITHER, Manager. J. K. GANT, Salesman.

Gant & Gaither Company, Tobacco Commission Merchants HOPKINSVILLE, - KENTUCKY.

JNO. W. MCGAUGHEY, President. DIRECTORS: D. B. NANCE, M. D. BOALES, THOS. G. GAINES, Z. T. LACEY, JNO. W. HANBERRY, THOS. W. BAKER, H. G. ABERNATHY, H. H. ABERNATHY

ABERNATHY & CO., TOBACCO COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

CENTRAL WAREHOUSE, HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY. AMPLE ACCOMMODATION FOR TEAMS AND TEAMSTERS FREE OF CHARGE

Pomroy's Liver Cure, —THE GREAT REMEDY FOR— SICK HEADACHE, DYSPEPSIA, AND LIVER COMPLAINT.

SOLD AT GAITHER'S PRESCRIPTION DRUG STORE. POMROY'S VERMIFUGE —IS SAFE AND SURE—

TRY IT. SOLD BY G. E. GAITHER AND J. R. ARMISTEAD.

LOUISVILLE BUGGY COMPANY, MANUFACTURERS OF All the latest styles of strictly first-class Carriages, Barouches, Buggies and Phaetons.

We guarantee workmanship and material equal to any factory in the State. All work reliably warranted. Interested parties will consult their interests by inspecting our stock personally before buying. If at a distance, send for catalogue and general information. Factory & Warehouse, 317 & 319 So. Market St., Bet. 3d & 4th, Louisville, Ky.

MAIN STREET FIRE-PROOF WAREHOUSE, BUCKNER & WOOLDRIDGE, Prop'rs.

Liberal Advances on Tobacco in Store, and personal attention given to the inspection and sale of tobacco. Good lot for teams and quarters for teamsters. Send us your tobacco and we will obtain the highest price.

All Tobacco Insured Unless Otherwise Instructed in Writing. Buckner & Wooldridge.

C. E. TANDY & CO., DEALERS IN Drugs, Groceries, Tobacco, Etc., FAIRVIEW, KENTUCKY.

A full line of Drugs, Druggist's Sundries, Stationery, Soaps, Perfumeries and Fancy Articles, also a choice stock of Groceries, Tobacco, Cigars, Glassware, Tinware, Etc., kept always on hand. Everything new and fresh. Give us a call before making your purchases. C. E. TANDY & CO. Feb. 20.

Parrish, Buckner & Co., Tobacco Salesmen, Commission Merchants, Elephant Warehouse, CLARKSVILLE, TENN., Advances on Consignments. JAMES T. KENNEDY, BOOK-KEEPER. W. G. WHEELER. JOHN N. MILLS.

WHEELER, MILLS & CO., -TOBACCO- WAREHOUSEMEN & COMMISSION MERCHANTS, Fire-Proof Warehouse, HOPKINSVILLE, - KY. Liberal advance on consignments. All tobacco sent us covered by insurance. Sales Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. W. H. FAXON, Clerk. Nov 10

READY FOR BUSINESS. I have moved into my large store-rooms in the new— Miller Block, Pembroke, Ky., and now have on hand a complete and well-selected stock of DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, Etc. —In the corner room, and a full line of— Drugs, Stationery, Druggist's Sundries, Etc., in the adjoining room. The drug store will be under the management of Mr. W. R. Wall. I also have at my old stand, across the street, a large stock of STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES, HARDWARE, TINWARE, & GLASSWARE. Mr. Herman Graham will be found in charge of this department. In the ware-room will be found a complete line of Agricultural Implements, Seeds and Farmers' Supplies. and up stairs a full line of FURNITURE. I hope to receive a liberal share of the public patronage. My prices are as low as the lowest. Give me a call. Oct. 20. M. G. MILLER.

M. Lipstine! —LEADS THE TIMES WITH A FULL LINE OF— Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Ladies' Dress Goods, Cloaks, Millinery and Notions.

He is now in his new store on Main Street, opposite Geo. O. Thompson's furniture store, where he will be glad to serve everyone. His stock of Men's, Youths' and Boys' Clothing is of the best quality and latest styles, and the largest in the city. A large variety of Ladies' Misses' and Men's Boots and Shoes. His stock is all new and fresh, and will be sold at the lowest figures. Examine his goods and prices and you will find that he states nothing but facts. MILLINERY! His stock of Millinery was selected by Mrs. Isaac Hart, who is well acquainted with the requirements of this market, and the display in this department cannot be excelled, and the ladies are especially invited to inspect them. —HIS STOCK OF— LADIES' WRAPS is the most complete ever brought to the city, and the prices quite reasonable. HIS NASHVILLE ST. STORE is in charge of Messrs. DICK LIPSTINE and ISAAC HART, who have had sufficient experience in this line to guarantee satisfaction to all customers.

Don't Fail to Call on M. Lipstine Before Buying.

Harrow Drags at an Angle of Forty-Five Degrees. THE IRON DUKE HARROW. THE BEST HARROW EVER MADE. It is a perfect impromptu harrow for cutting, leveling, and smoothing. It will do more perfect work in one hour than any other harrow. It can be moved from field to field or through woods and brush. It is made of iron and does not rot. It has more advantages than all other harrows. It is the best harrow ever put into the ground. Harrow Manufacturers will be glad to furnish you with full particulars. Special attention given to inquiries. Write for prices, terms, etc. KIMBERLIN MAN'G CO., INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

FORBES & BRO., Agents, HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

SIDE-BAR BUCKBOARD THE EASIEST RIDING VEHICLE MADE CHEAP! Answers the place of a Buggy and a Spring Wagon. Write for price to C SPRING CART CO., Rushville, Ind.

TIME TABLE FOR TRAINS.

DEPART SOUTH—5:30 and 6:30 A. M.; 4:45 P. M.
DEPART NORTH—10:30 and 11:30 A. M.; 9:30 P. M.
ARRIVE SOUTH—10:30 A. M.; 4:45 P. M.
ARRIVE NORTH—5:30 A. M.; 9:30 P. M.

TIME TABLE OF C. & O. & S. W. R. R.

GOING SOUTH.
Lv. Louisville 8:30 A. M.
" " 11:30 A. M.
" " 2:30 P. M.
" " 5:30 P. M.
GOING NORTH.
Lv. Memphis 11:30 P. M.
" " 1:30 A. M.
" " 3:30 A. M.
" " 5:30 A. M.

POST OFFICE—North Main Street.
Open for letters, stamps—7 A. M. to 6 P. M.
" " money orders—8 A. M. to 4 P. M.
" " delivery, Sundays—8:45 to 10:15 P. M.
SOUTHERN EXPRESS OFFICE,
Russellville St.
Open 4 A. M. to 5 P. M.

Hendricks dead. A statement great,
Elected twice beyond a doubt,
By fraud deprived and now by fate
A second time he's counted out.

SOCIALITIES.

Mr. J. M. Frankel is in Cincinnati buying goods.

Mr. Baylor Hickman is visiting his father's family.

Miss Sue West, of Crofton, is visiting friends in the city this week.

Mr. Will C. Morton, of Madisonville, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Lillie Pendleton, of Pembroke, is visiting the Misses Woodbridge.

Miss Fannie Clardy, of Newstead, is visiting Miss Ida Williams.

Mr. Jno. Hubbard and wife, of Evansville, are visiting relatives in the city.

Judge R. T. Pattee spent several days in Dixon this week, on legal business.

Hon. B. F. Bule, of Anson, Tex., formerly a member of the Hopkinsville bar, was in the city this week.

Misses Maggie Underwood and Annie Smith, of Bellevue, are visiting friends in the city this week.

Mr. Thos. A. Smithson, who has been traveling through the northwest in the interest of a machine house, has returned to this county to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Twyman returned home this week after a visit of several weeks to relatives in Arkansas. They were accompanied by Miss Lavada Morris, Mrs. Twyman's sister, who will attend school in this city.

"LADIES OF THE LEAF" SOCIETY

An Important Question Decided.

The young ladies of the "Ladies of the Leaf" Literary Society of South Kentucky College gave their first public entertainment in the College chapel on Wednesday evening last. The following programme was rendered in an exceedingly creditable manner, considering that with very few exceptions the participants had never belonged to a literary society before.

Piano and Violin, Duet—Miss Scooby and Prof. Reichert; Recitation—Miss Mary Feland; Vocal Duet—Misses Winfree and McDaniel; Essay, "Act well thy Part"—Miss Bell; Solo, Piano—Miss Huddleston; Recitation—Miss Lillard; Duet, Piano—Misses Pauline Crumbaugh and Alice Scooby; Reading—Miss Lulu Winfree; Solo, vocal—Miss Hiley; Recitation—Miss Betty Boulware; Solo, instrumental—Miss Mamie Tandy; Reading—Miss Fullilove; Solo, instrumental—Miss Mattie Young; Essay, "A girl that everyone loves"—Miss Huddleston; Piano and Violin, Duet—Miss Scooby and Prof. Reichert; Debate, Question, "Is woman ever justifiable in proposing?"—A. D. Misses McDaniel and Bottomley; Neg. Misses Annie L. King and Annie Tandy. Decided in favor of the affirmative.

Weddings.

Mr. Peter Barker, of South Christian, and Miss Annie Johnston, of Peacher's Mill, Tenn., were married on Tuesday, Nov. 24. Miss Johnston was educated in this city and has frequently visited here since she graduated from South Kentucky College, and has always been a favorite in the social circles. She is a most charming and attractive young lady and the fortunate groom is to be congratulated upon his good fortune in winning her for a life-partner.

Miss Nora L. Garth, daughter of Mr. G. E. Garth, of Trenton, was on last Wednesday married to Mr. N. K. Allensworth, of this county. The wedding occurred at the residence of the bride's father, and was very quiet, only a select few being present. There were four couples of attendants. After the ceremony, which took place at 3 o'clock, the young couple took the 5 P. M. train for the south, on a bridal tour. We heartily congratulate the groom upon gaining for his bride such an attractive and accomplished young lady. The bride has many friends and relatives in this city who will wish them a happy wedded life.

Church Services.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.
Next Lord's day morning at 11 o'clock by the pastor, L. W. Welsh. Subject: "Does God hear and answer prayer; or is the Christian's faith in prayer in harmony with reason and science?" At night Eld. Wm. Stanley, recently pastor of the church, will preach. His many friends will be glad of this opportunity of hearing him once more before his removal from our midst. Sunday school at 9:30 A. M. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

HERE AND THERE.

A few flakes of snow, the first of the season, fell Tuesday.

The young people had a social dance at Howe's Hall last night.

Born, to the wife of Mr. J. J. Chappell, of Cadiz, a boy.

The first freeze of the season occurred Wednesday night, the 25th inst.

A brick pavement has been laid on Liberty street, in the rear of Mr. J. F. Pyle's lot.

The sandstone pavement on the west side of Main street is being taken up and re-laid.

Little Willie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. T. Coleman, of Bennettsburg, died last Friday.

Mr. Selden T. Major, of Clarksville, a brother of Mr. T. P. Major, died of consumption at Canton this week, in the 26th year of his age.

A protracted meeting has just closed at Euodica Christian church, near Longview, which resulted in some twenty-five or thirty accessions to the church.

Eld. Wm. Stanley returned from Hart county this week. He was just from a meeting of fifteen days at Gilead church, which resulted in fifteen additions.

The young men of the South Kentucky College debating society will on to-morrow evening discuss the question: "Were the Irish justifiable in using dynamite to assert their rights?"

Miss Alice Hayes will move her millinery store to the rooms over Jones & Co's, on Jan. 1st, and in order to reduce her stock she is now offering special bargains in millinery goods.

Among the few business houses not burned in Fairview is the grocery and drug establishment of C. E. Tandy & Co. They are still in the ring with a good stock of groceries, drugs, tobacco, stationery, etc., which are selling at low down prices.

We were presented this week with a jug of cider from Powell & Son's Meadow Hill Orchard, Henderson county Ky. It is pure crab cider and a very fine article. The agent, Mr. C. S. Baldwin, will be here in a day or two to put it upon the market.

Henry Bullard was tried Tuesday on the charge of assaulting Bill Callis, and severely wounding him. He was held over under a bond of $500, which he could not give and will consequently winter at the expense of the commonwealth in the county jail.

A Union Thanksgiving service was held at the Baptist church yesterday morning. Rev. W. L. Nourse, of the Presbyterian church, preached the sermon for the occasion. All the local pastors were present and a large congregation attended the meeting. The postoffice and banks were closed but further than this the day was not observed in the city.

Dr. Jno. P. Bell, who for the greater part of the past year has been in the Louisville City Hospital, will return to his home in a few days and commence the practice of medicine either at his father's, Capt. C. D. Bell, or at Howell, Ky. Dr. Bell had unusual advantages in acquiring a medical education, and his subsequent practice in the hospital of a great city has amply fitted him for his profession.—Clarksville Tobacco Leaf.

There has been a steady and substantial increase in the circulation of the SOUTH KENTUCKIAN all this year and especially has this been the case during the present month. Our subscription receipts during this month are already more than four times greater than the corresponding month last year and new subscribers are constantly coming in, while few if any of our old patrons fail to renew. It is truly gratifying to us to meet with such encouragement in our efforts to make the SOUTH KENTUCKIAN a model county newspaper. The SOUTH KENTUCKIAN for 1886 will not only be kept up to its present standard, but substantial and material improvements will be made in the paper within a few days, while the price will remain as heretofore—$2 per annum.

The sublime tragedy, "Hamlet," was presented at the Opera House Wednesday evening by Mr. Geo. C. Miln, the Chicago tragedian who left the pulpit to go on the stage. The play has not been attempted here since J. G. Stutz butchered it years ago in the old Mozart Hall. Mr. Miln undoubtedly possesses talent of a high order. His voice lacks strength and volume but these defects may in time be overcome. His acting is superb in some scenes and his conception of the play is very correct. His support is rather weak. The character of Polonius was fairly well sustained by J. B. Amory, and Francis Quinby as Laertes did pretty well. Further than this the support was not at all such as Mr. Miln should have. A small but appreciative house gave the company a patient hearing until near midnight, and the comments heard after the performance were without exception favorable to Mr. Miln.

The following parties have been licensed to wed this week:

Forest Mason to Miss Mattie H. Adcock.

Jno. W. Hammonds to Miss M. E. Melton.

G. W. Jewell to Miss M. J. Prince.

T. M. Carroll to Miss Emma S. Berry.

Robt. Fowler, who murdered Miss Lida Burnett, and who was sentenced to hang Nov. 27, in Union county, was respected by the Governor and his case will go to the Court of Appeals.

A KING DEAD.

ALFONSO, KING OF SPAIN, DIES WEDNESDAY MORNING.

The Queen Appointed Regent.

MADRID, Nov. 25.—Throughout Monday night the King had spasmodic fits, the result of fever and debility. Six doctors from Madrid and two physicians of El Pardo were in constant attendance upon him. They decided, on Tuesday morning that the King was in a dangerous condition. The fits continued throughout Tuesday and the King died at 8:45 this morning. The Pope's benediction arrived before he expired. All the officers of State and the Cabinet ministers, except the Minister of War and the Minister of the Interior, were present at the moment of dissolution. The Cabinet met immediately and the Queen was appointed regent. In accordance with the law, the members of the Cabinet have tendered their resignations, but will remain pending the Regent's pleasure. The body of the King will be interred in the Palace of the Escorial.

KING ALFONSO.

MADRID, Nov. 25.—Throughout Monday night the King had spasmodic fits, the result of fever and debility. Six doctors from Madrid and two physicians of El Pardo were in constant attendance upon him. They decided, on Tuesday morning that the King was in a dangerous condition. The fits continued throughout Tuesday and the King died at 8:45 this morning. The Pope's benediction arrived before he expired. All the officers of State and the Cabinet ministers, except the Minister of War and the Minister of the Interior, were present at the moment of dissolution. The Cabinet met immediately and the Queen was appointed regent. In accordance with the law, the members of the Cabinet have tendered their resignations, but will remain pending the Regent's pleasure. The body of the King will be interred in the Palace of the Escorial.

Even in these days of cheap literature, the most and the best for the least money is the Household Receipt Book; mailed free by D. Lothrop & Co., Boston, for one two-cent stamp. The cream of books by Marion Harland, Mrs. Diaz, Susan Power, and others. The Household Primer is also mailed free on receipt of one two-cent stamp.

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us the happy season of Christmas. It is replete with beautiful stories and poems appropriate to that time; in addition to which there are other articles of great merit and utility. The opening article is the commencement of an interesting serial by Julian Hawthorne, the well known and popular author. Jenny June contributes a paper on "Women A-broad;" and an exceedingly amusing sketch is entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." The Household Department is unusually full, and the illustrations are of a fine quality. The frontispiece is an oil picture entitled "Merry Christmas."

Chas. Lund, a Dane, was found dead in Louisville, where he had been drowned in a small puddle of water while drunk.

Demorest's Magazine for December brings vividly before us

